

INSTRUCTIONS

- ⇒ Who can enter? All entries must be submitted by a broadcast station, an educational institution, or an individual student. The categories of Team Multimedia Storytelling – News and Individual Multimedia Storytelling – News may also be entered by organizations that are traditionally print in nature and by online-only organizations. Otherwise, no independent professional productions will be accepted.
- ⇒ Air dates: All entries must have aired during the calendar year 2024.
- ⇒ Number of entries: There is no limit to the number of entries that an entrant may submit.
- ⇒ Multiple entries: If applicable, a story may be entered in more than one category (i.e. Feature & Best Audio). However, two entry fees must be submitted.
- ⇒ Online Entries: All entries will be submitted through our online contest website, www.betterbnc.com.
NOTE: Entries must be submitted in the form of URL's—the entry is not uploaded to the contest site. If the entries are not already archived on your station's website, they can be uploaded to an online hosting site such as You Tube or Kiwi6 or Sound Cloud (audio only). Please be certain that each entry remains online and is not behind a paywall or password protection through the 2025 Midwest Journalism Conference.

In addition to the entry itself, we also request that each entry also be accompanied by a 30-second clip that will be used to complete our awards presentation.
- ⇒ Supplementary material: Supplementary material can be uploaded to the contest site, but judging will be based solely on the broadcast entry.
- ⇒ Deadline: All online entries must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. EST Friday, January 31, 2025
- ⇒ Entry fees: Fees, payable to MBJA are as follows:
$45 per professional entry. $35 per student entry.
NOTE: MBJA accepts payment by check, VISA or Mastercard.
- ⇒ Questions: Call MBJA Executive Secretary Christine Paige Diers at (605) 490-3033, or email cpaigediers@gmail.com.
- ⇒ Unless otherwise noted, entries can be edited to fit the maximum allowed length.

RADIO

LARGE: Four or more full-time newsroom employees.

MEDIUM: Two or three full-time newsroom employees.

SMALL: One or no full-time newsroom employees.

STUDENTS: May submit their own entries or college/university can enter on behalf of student(s). Entries must be produced as part of a student's coursework and/or for a college media entity.

News staff that operate only within the framework of a network must compete at the large market category regardless of the size of their individual shop. News operations that are part of a network, but operate independently from that network— and at least 75 percent of the news produced is for a local audience— should compete based on the size of their staff. Stations may enter multiple categories, but must select only one market size.

SPECIAL NOTES ON ENTERING & JUDGING

MARKETS

Program producers or syndicated non-broadcast services must enter in the largest market in which their programs aired regionally.

SELECTING WINNERS

The judges will select one First Place and up to two Award of Merit winners in each category and market size (where applicable).

Judges are instructed to select as many winning entries as allowed by contest rules and have the discretion to select no winners in a category if none are merited. In that event, judges will submit a written explanation of their reason.

Judges also have the right to move an entry from one category to another, if deemed a better fit. In this case, judges should call or email the contest manager, MBJA Executive Secretary Christine Paige Diers at (605) 490-3033, or email cpaigediers@gmail.com.

All decisions made by judges are final.
